The gripping, masterful debut novel THE MINIATURIST, set in 17th-century Amsterdam and written in the tradition of Emma Donoghue, Sarah Waters and Sarah Dunant.
This brilliantly imagined debut reminiscent of THE HANDMAID’S TALE tells the story of Flora 717, a bee in a hive where only the Queen may breed and any deformity means death. When she finds herself in the possession of a deadly secret, she becomes a hunted criminal whose decisions will mean life or death for her entire hive.
LET ME BE FRANK WITH YOU is the long-awaited return of Frank Bascombe—four deftly linked stories narrated by the iconic character, now 68, and ensconced in the New Jersey suburb of Haddam in the aftermath of Hurricane Sandy's devastation.
The brilliant adult debut novel from New York Times bestselling author of Before I Fall and the Delirium trilogy: a ghost story in which the lives—and the secrets—of the living and the dead intersect in shocking, surprising and moving ways.

$26.99

A lush, suspenseful debut about a crisis of inheritance that leads to the downfall of a wealthy family of Persian Jews in the tumult of early 20th-century Iran.
Heartfelt, suspenseful, and told with Sloane Crosley's inimitable spark and wit, THE CLASP is a story of friends in their late 20s struggling to fit together now that their lives haven't gone as planned, learning how to separate the real from the fake.
THE MARK AND THE VOID is the funniest novel ever written about the recent financial crisis in Ireland and a stirring examination of the deceptions carried out in the names of art and commerce. Murray is also the much-lauded author of SKIPPY DIES.
A cat recalls her owner Colette’s theatrical antics in Paris. A Russian tortoise once owned by the Tolstoys drifts in space during the Cold War. A dolphin sent to Iraq by the U.S. Navy writes a letter to Sylvia Plath. Exquisitely written, playful and poignant, ONLY THE ANIMALS is an animal’s-eye view of humans at our brutal, violent worst and our creative, imaginative best.

O’Neill's first collection of short stories twists the beloved narratives of childhood—fairy tales, storybooks, Bible stories—to uncover the deepest truths of life.
DEATH AND MR. PICKWICK is a vast, richly imagined, Dickensian work about the rough-and-tumble world that produced an author who defined an age. Like Charles Dickens did in his immortal novels, Stephen Jarvis has spun a tale full of preposterous characters, shaggy-dog stories, improbable reversals, skulduggery, betrayal and valor—all true, and all brilliantly brought to life in his unputdownable book.
In Paula Daly's electrifying new domestic thriller, a single mother is offered an indecent proposal she can't refuse.

The inspiring story of how a group of ditch kids were transformed into Olympic-level swimming champions for readers of Laura Hillenbrand and THE BOYS IN THE BOAT.
Hailed as "a novel so extraordinary that it reminded me of reading Stieg Larsson for the very first time" (Sunday Times, UK), a near-million copy bestseller in Europe--centered on a tragic plane crash in the Alps and the mystery surrounding its only survivor, an infant girl.
David Nicholls brings the wit and intelligence that graced his New York Times bestseller ONE DAY to a compellingly human, deftly humorous new novel about what holds marriages and families together—and what happens when everything threatens to fall apart.
From the internationally bestselling author of The Island comes a stirring novel about loyalty, love, and resilience in the face of tremendous upheaval—a saga of survival set during the 1974 Cypriot coup d’état that tells the intersecting stories of three families whose lives are decimated when brewing ethnic tensions erupt into conflict.
Set in a small coastal town in North Carolina during the waning years of the American Revolution, this incandescent debut novel follows three generations of family—fathers and daughters, mother and son, master and slave—characters who yearn for redemption amid a heady brew of war, kidnapping, slavery and love.
