Dogs at the Perimeter: A Novel

Madeleine Thien

W. W. Norton & Company

Paperback

On sale: October 3rd

ISBN-13: 9780393354300

$15.95

The first novel by the Man Booker Prize shortlisted author Madeleine Thien. Set in Cambodia during the regime of the Khmer Rouge and in present-day Montreal, Thien tells the story of Janie, who as a child experiences the terrible violence carried out by the Khmer Rouge and loses everything she holds dear. Three decades later, Janie has relocated to Montreal, although the scars of her past remain visible.

Dogs at the Perimeter evokes the injustice of tyranny through the eyes of a young girl and draws a remarkable map of the mind's battle with memory, loss and the horrors of war.
